The City of Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue is proud to present its rich and diversified program for the summer of 2023!

Throughout the season, a wide range of free activities will be organized to enable young and old to Escape Close to Home.

We hope our program will help you enjoy your town in all its summer glory.

Marché Ste-Anne

Every Saturday, rain or shine, Marché Ste-Anne should be your weekend's first foodie stop.

There, you will meet several local farmers and artisans selling farm fresh eggs, artisanal cheeses, fresh baked bread and pastries, heirloom fruits and vegetables, organic produce, and many other artisanal products.

In the summer, the market takes place on Saturdays, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., on the waterfront at Lalonde Park, located at the corner of Saint-Pierre and Sainte-Anne Streets.

Celebration of Quebec's National Holiday

The City of Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue has put together a vibrant program for Quebec's National Holiday.

On the agenda, the show Kébec Muse and a visit of the mobile bar, La Baravan! The first part of the show will be covered by the musical group consisting of Bill Gossage, Mike Bleho and Glenn Roy.

The festivities will take place on June 23, as of 6 p.m. at the City Hall's parking lot.
