MUNICIPAL NEWS

SENIOR FRIENDLY MUNICIPALITY (MADA) CONSULTATION OF CITIZENS AGED OVER 65

Last spring, the City of Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue surveyed its seniors as part of its MADA (Municipalité amie des aînés) program.

MADA aims to identify the needs of seniors and promote a culture of social inclusion regardless of age or ability, as well as encourage active aging among seniors.

In the second phase of consultation, the committee will contact citizens directly via focus groups or phone conversations.

The survey is open to anyone 65 years of age or older who lives in Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue and has not participated in the previous survey.

The options are as follows :

- 1- Participate in a focus group via videoconference
- 2- Be contacted by phone to discuss with committee members

EXTREME HEAT

In the summer, the sun and beautiful weather are great sources of enjoyment... However, when the heat is too extreme, it is stressful to the body. Several organs, including the heart, have to work harder to resist the heat.

The City has a page on its website dedicated to explaining the effects of extreme heat, what to do in the event of extreme heat, and what numbers to call if you or a loved one experiences a heat-related problem.

Check out the page now to be well prepared.
